VOLUME 18---NO. 34.]

CADIZ, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1851.

Book Farming.

It is amusing to hear some wise peopl

free country, of falling in the rear of that nu-

The Profits of Farming.

I must sleep now .-- Byron.

Kiss me, Hardy .- Lord Nelson.

Don't give up the ship .-- Lawrence. Is this your fidelity?-- Nero.

Give Dayroles a chair.-Chesterfield.

God preserve the emperor .- Hadya.

All my possessions for a moment of time.

I have loved God, my father, and liberty

It is small, very small indeed, (clapping

Into thy hands, O Lord .- Tasso.

The artery ceases to beat .- Haller.

Let the light enter .- Goetee.

-Madame de Stael.

Be serious - Grotius.

It is well .- Washington.

Independence forever .- Adams.

It matters little how the head lieth .- Sir

Clasp my hand, dear friend; I die.-Alfi-

TERMS-$1,50 A YEAR

Sick Bed Reflections.

Ain-"Bunker Hill."

Hearken ye sprightly, and attend ye vain in.

painful

down-bed;

Vain is its softness to assuage the pain of Raging disorder.

Vain are my groanings, all complaints are Changing my place cannot my fever,

Here like a reptile on a bed of embers, Turning I languish. Hopes of recovery my fond heart indulged Till my physician, to my great amazement, Kindly informed me, that my case was desperate Death swife approaching. Wonder of wonders to my view now open

Life is receding, to the grave Fm hasming Am I prepared? this dread moment must I Meet my Creator?

Twenty-five years I've spent without considering Man was mortal, pendent on a moment Life but a shadow, time a flying arrow Quick to dispel it.

On have I listened while death bells were Seen the prave open'd add spectator mourning, But I mysuif in spite of all those warnings Long life expected.

In my gay nonnents thanghts of death I've, and he took hold of him by the arm. banished Death to prepare for.

Tortured in body not a limb escapes it No sweet composure to direct one prayer, All is discorded yet my some elernal Now is depending.

Oh! ghastly death pray stop one single moment,
While I give warning to my companions, No time is granted for expostulation, Shun my example.

PAUL CODLINS'

It was ten o'clock at night, and Mr. Paul some land, which was to be offered for sale The driver laughed, and touched his horse came. the next morning, and he expressly told with the whip, when the policeman shouted his wife that he should be back by the quarafter him: "I dare say, Jake, you've heard ter past nine train. Any one acquainted tell of him-it's great Captain Legbalem." with the locality will doubtless remember that "Eh! who? stop, driver-who did you so that he could easily have walked home if he palled up, and the policeman he had come by the quarter past nine train; and yet ten o'clock had struck and he had walked to the window of the fly and asked.

The driver pulled up, and the policeman nacious miller.

It was a long night for poor Codlins, but Here tired dissimulation drops her mask; alarmed. The fact is, there had been a Captain Legislem their first disagreement. She was almost was the reply of the stranger.

and he had not come back. to read, but the first paragraph her eyes fell Inspector entered with the stranger. on a police case, in which a ruffianly-looking "So, sir!" exclaimed Mr. Codlins, "you ered his note only about an hour before he fellow was charged with deserting his wife are the Inspector, ch?" and ten small children, and leaving them "Yes, sir," was the reply; children; but could be desert her, and leave This is a land of liberty, and I'm a Britain, over to bring back whatever cash Mrs. C. my grave.—Robert Burns.

her chargeable to the parish of Bubbleton? sir, and—that is—I'll—in fact——"

Mol he never would, she was sure. He And poor Paul came to a full stop. He man had given him £35. Upon hearing Sir Walter Scott. sure he would come back) perhaps it might been put on. keep these ampleasant thoughts from her. The Inspector took advantage of this mind; but no one lived within half a mile pane and wave him the word and account of coaxing and kissing, had recovered tion, and the history retrogrades fourteen to him (the Inspector) and that the ---shire Paul Codlins had a clean face-the moushours. Mr. Paul Codlins is discovered with police, having to travel 250 miles, could ar- tache was gone for even-Ainsuo th Maga ticket in his hand, as the train is coming rive before evening.

Pause in your mirth, adversity consider:

Learn from a friend's pen, sentimental ability of becoming the purchaser of the land creet;" and then added, "I suppose, as the farmer is the last one who is to derive Sick bed reflections.

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and then hearing you have been sitting somehow, that they could only take your portrait half length?"

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and the press, are two or three stations.

The was going to look at. The train stopped at two or three stations, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trousers, and they don't give the color of your trouse

Seeing the village on a hill about a mile tion-it was so accurate. But I'd forgotten, man has no enjoyments, off, he did not ask any directions as to his route, for he had been told before he left the Inspector, turning to the stranger; who of others should disturb the equanitative of the Inspector, turning to the stranger; who quested to apply who wished to view the property. So, as it was a beautiful day, he walked slowly forward. Now it so happened "I can assure you I am a gentleman of have gathered wisdom from a long and a property. So, as it was a beautiful day, he sure; but he could not swear it.

Kindest attention of my friends most humane mear the station when Mr. Paul arrived there, to this village for the purpose of buying some communicate to others the lessons which with the profound skill of a kind physician, saluted him, which so pleased him (for he moreover at the Blue II). With the profound skill of a kind physician, All skill is bafled while distressing anguish, Tortures my whole frame.

Tortures my whole frame. alighted; who first of all looked at him as if where at New Stoke to-morrow." they were measuring him, in their own minds, ''No, not at New Stoke; at Ravensoake,' for a suit of clothes, and then, when he went said Paul. out of the station, forming a sort of pro-out of the station, forming a sort of pro-cession up the lane, consisting of one of them vensoake is sixmiles off," was the cold reply. ten yards in the rear. Mr. Codlins, in pro- must have got out at the wrong station." found ignorance of this arrangement, walked "Very likely, was the Inspector's conso- the agriculturist. And hence we should adslowly along, making scientific cuts at the ling remark. "And now, sir, I think you dress ourselves to the pleasurable task of deheads of divers nettles and thistles with his will see that I am justified in detaining you veloping the vast resources of mind, that we constabulary.

propositing carefully to note down the man's they were doing nothing else.

tone, you see that you are fairly enuglia this pocket, and when the constable used the the fly and started for the station.

same or similar words to him, he received

It is most probable the police were so en
same or similar words to him, he received

It is most probable the police were so en
with so poor a system, rather no system at vention. It is also necessary to nominate a It is most probable the police were so entire the man had asked bim to dinner. It is they had made, that they did not notice the probable, however, he may have had made, that they did not notice the protective than Mr. Codlins, that gentleman received the announcement that he was arrested for felony in anything but a passive manner, and forthwith commenced a most vigorous assault with his umbrella, which was assault with his assault with his assault with his assault with his assault and the proceedings of the Legislature as the bemoeratic National Contain the percent of the bemoeratic National Contain the proceedings of the Legislature to those who wish so poor a system, rather no system at Demoeratic National Contain the proceedings of the Legislature to the dispersion. It is that under such be dispersion. It is that under such believed to the bemoeration. It is that under such believe ing him into the station-house all in a minute. forwarded of Captain Leghalem, excepting fit from any business.

But the dust made in performing this mathat he stooped slightly, and had no moustather than the stooped slightly. nouvre caused the driver of one of the Blue che. Lion flys, coming up from the railway station, to shout to the policeman at the door, he know more the arrived of either his friends.

the village of Ravensoake is about twenty- say?" shouted the passenger, putting his one miles from the village of Bubbleton, and head out of the window, but apparently con-Mr. Paul Codlins' house lies N. N. W., about sidering he had done an imprudent action, a quarter of a mile from Bubbleton Station, he pulled it in again instantly, without wait-trifle to quarrel about to be sure; but that be much obliged to the gentleman if he having any connexion with the illustrious stupid Pau persisted in growing a moustache, would walk into the office and identify Capt. captain. and it made him look quite a fright; and no Legbalem, as none of the force in the county The description, they said, tallied accuexcepting military men, no one wore the hair mently protesting against his detention, and self a free man was to renew his threats of on their upper lip except swindlers and mu- declaring he was not Captain Legbalem, of vengeance, but his second (for he was, withsic-sellers, upon which Mr. Paul, without no where in particular, but Mr. Paul Cod-another word, departed to Ravensoake; and lins, of Bubbleton Villa, ——shire.

elaborate bit of action on the part of Captain and avoid getting in such a scrape again. She took up a newspaper, and attempted Legbalem) were on the broad grin when the He arrived home safely, and found, horloved her well. He never could emigrate was always rather a nervous man, and the which, Paul droped down flat upon the sofa, I resign myself to God, and my daughter without her. If she had only some one to choler the insult had at first raised had been and the weight of his misfortunes broke a to my country. - Jefferson. speak to until Paul came home (for she was subsiding rapidly since the handcuffs had leg off it.

keep three ampleasant thoughts from her mind; his an one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, and there was no one-lived within half a mile, pause, and gave him the usual caution.

The Inspector took advantage of this pause of the same of coaxing and kissing, had recovered his speech for him—"my dear," as id one and kissing, had recovered his speech for him—"my dear," it is done and the true principles of government. I wish them carried on yathout charges (which he specified) and also that neither he nor any of his men knew him, but that the —shire police had received long had some difficulty in keeping here!

Independence forever.—Adams.

This is the last of coaxing and kissing, had recovered his speech for him—"my dear," it is done and can't be helped. Let us consider it a horri drawn, and 'ry to forget it. There, don't drawn and 'ry to forget it. There is no a single drop of blood on my days on a same and have an absent man. She had be the proper of the more and the prope

The train arrives, and Mr. Codlins gets "What might the description be?" asked There was no one in the compartment Codlins, very humbly.

which he entered, so putting his legs on the The Inspector read from a paper the folopposite seat, he entered at once into an lowing: "White hat, black coat, thick black talk about the popular bug bear of "Book he was going to look at. The train stopped they don't give the color of your trousers, any advantage from the press, and the first Sudden and awful from the heighth of Bubbleton, that the Blue Lion was the first hastily replied, that to the best of his knowl- their minds, or cast a shade of suspicion on bouse in the village, and the Blue Lion was edge he had never seen the gentleman bethe infallibility of past generations. A very pain and sickness, thrown upon this onested to apply who wished to view the constant of the infallibility of past generations. A very intelligent friend of ours, one who is an ex-

that two or three soldiers stood idling about independant property, and that I came over successful experience, they are bound to Codlins did not notice the somewhat extra-ordinary behavior of two policemen when he sale of land at the Blue Lion, or indeed any-and he who is too wise in his own conceit. to read has the inestimable privilege, in this marching about ten yards in advance of Mr. "Goodness gracious," exclaimed poor sing his own judgment, will make a sorry Codlins, and the other perambulating about Codlins, at this knock-down blow, "then I business of farming, or anything else. No calling requires more thought than that of until the ----shire police arrive." At last the first house in the village was "Yes, I believe you are doing nothing but inexhaustable riches of the soil. reached, and then Mr. Codlins stopped, for, your duty," said the miserable man, "but instead of the Blue Lion Hotel, it was the if you would be so good as to telegraph to station of the "Z" division of the country Bubbleton-oh! I forgot that there is no telegraph on this confounded line—but if that farming is poor business, and nothing have some of my friends to release me from "In here, capting," replied the man with this unpleasant predicament," a grin; whereupon Mr. Codlins was indig- "I am very sorry, but all my men are on by many persons, is frequently unprolitto the ensuing National Democratic Convenpollor man could noswer a civil question or doubted this, for unless they were engaged be attributed to a want of skill, judgment or tion, are to be elected by the State Convennot. and, rolling out his note-book, he was to prop up the wall of the station-house, means, on the part of farmer, rather than tion at large; and the delegates in attendance

Chansils I've slighted warnings I veneglected and, honoring Mr. Paul with a most familiar would start in half an hour, and he should fully some other kinds of business. The tend said National Convention.

ous assault with his umbrella, which was done any business while he stayed. And it buy his supplies on credit, and sell his proprematurely ended by the policeman tripping is worth remarking, that the stranger's aphim up, slipping the handcuffs on, and pushpearance exactly tallied with the description favorably situated to realize the greatest pro-

Lion flys, coming up from the ranway station, to shout to the policeman at the door, he knew upon the arrival of either his friends as safe as any other business, and reasonator the police, that his imprisonment would bly profitable. We do not expect any one to "Wot's hup?"
"We've been nabbing a swindler," was end, and he thought they could not be above grow suddenly rich by farming; but we do Codlins had not yet come home. He had the reply. "He was very crusty, but we a few hours at the most. Night, however, think that agriculture offers a just reward to came on, and neither friends nor police industry, knowledge and skill, and that farm-

The Inspector was surprised, but as Mr. It will not be disputed that the best managed Codlins' friends had not arrived, he was con- farms yield a good profit to their owners; and vinced that gentleman was trying to impose if others are not alike profitable, the fault in upon him. So the unhappy Paul was ad- a great degree, should be attributed to those judged to be treated like other prisoners, and who manage them .- Maine Farmer. locked up for the night in a dormitory containing only one bed, which was tenanted Last Words of Distinguished already by an intoxicated sweep and a pugnot arrived. His little wife began to be whether the gentleman knew anything about at last the morning came, and so did the Thro' life's grimace the mistress at the scenes; -----shire police. An accident had delayed Here real and apparent are the same. slight quarrel that very morning They had "No-that is, yes-I mean that the scoun- all the down trains the day before, and preonly been married four months, and it was drel once swindled me out of forty pounds," vented their arrival until that morning, but when they were introduced to Mr. Codlins, afraid it was their last. It was the merest The policeman said the Inspector would they at once acquitted that gentleman of Walter Raleigh.

man had a right to wear a moustache unless knew the Captain.

The stranger hesitated a moment, and then tache; but he was not the man, and so was cri in the Bubbleton troop of yeomanry. But getting out of the vehicle, walked boldly into at liberty to depart, and they were very sorwhat made Paul so vexed was, that Mrs. the station house.

Codlins expressed a firm conviction, that, The injured man in hand cuffs was vehered. His first impulse at finding himthe clock was actually now striking eleven. The policeman (who regarded this as an and, forgetting what had happened, to try nai Bnaufort, rible to relate, that the stranger had deliv-"but allow stopped him too. He told Mrs. Codlins that her neck.)—Anna Boleyn. arrived-the accident on the railway had about. Codding was certainly not a ruffianly- lion. "Allow me to caution you that you but that he had unfortunately lost his purse scaffold.)—Sir Thomas Moore.

looking fellow, and they had not ten small are illegally detaining an English gentleman, with about £50 in it, and so had sent him Don't let that awkward squad fire over

What is a Year?

What is a year? 'Tis but a wave On life's dark rolling stream, Which is so quickly gone that we Account it but a dream. 'Tis but a single earnest throb

Of Time's old iron heart, Which tireless now and strong as when It first with life did start. What is a year? 'Tis but a turn

Of Time's old brazen wheel, Or but a page upon the book Which death must shortly seal. 'Tis but a step upon the road Which we must travel o'er, A few more stops and we shall walk Life's weary road no more.

What is a year? 'Tis but a breath From Time's old nostrils blown. As rushing onward o'er the earth. We hear his weary moan.

'Tis like the bubble on the wave, Or dew upon the lawn, As transient as the mists of morn Beneath the summer sun.

What is a year? 'Tis but a type

Of life's oft changing scene; Youth's happy morn comes gaily on With hills and valleys green. Next, Summer's prime succeeds the Spring. Then Autumn with a tear. Then comes old Winter-death, and all Democratic State Convention.

Must find their level here.

Below we publish a call of the Democrat take, unless they take the Daily. vention is of vast importance to the Demoeracy of Harrison county, as well as to the Daily, by mail, Which is the way to the Blue Lion Inn. you could send a messenger to Bubbleton, can be made at it. This idea, perhaps, is Democracy of the whole State. A candidate policemen?" inquired Mr. Coulins of the it is only fifteen miles, and I could then as prevalet among farmers themselves as for the Supreme Court of the State, and one Semi-Weekly, single subscribers, among any other class of citizens. We are Candidate for the Board of Public Works, ready to admit that farming, as it is carried are to be nominated; two Senatorial delegates Weekly, single subscribers. The stranger came to the rescue. He had more knowledge and judgment to be a first and, homeoing Mr. Can with a most familiar would start in half an hour, and he should start in half an hour. number, when made his The stranger came to the rescue. He had any fauit of the business itself. It requires from each Congressional district are to elect ad he took hold of hom by the arms. he most happy to take either a note or a mes"Come, wardom," and he. "none of your sage for Mr. Collins.

"The Legislature, will, in all with a very imperfect knowledge of the val- gates in the Convention, and we trust that in severe to a prepring his thanks, he tore a leaf from his should conduct his business without system, that number of her guidant Democracy may in session three or four months—then will conduct his business without system, that number of her guidant Democracy may in session three or four months—then will conduct his business without system, that number of her guidant Democracy may in session three or four months—then will all parts of the State during that day. The largest you are business without system, be found in the Convention. The work to follow the publication of all the General all parts of the State during that day.

In a propring his thanks, he tore a leaf from his should conduct his business without system, then the publication of all the General all parts of the State during that day. The largest you are the publication of all the General state of the State during that day. that number of her gallant Democracy may in session three or four months—then will ranged that our morning papers are taken to one candidate for Supreme Judge, and one the proceedings to have a paper! from each Congressional District to elect one January, 1852,) Delegate to said Convention.

The time has arrived for the election of paper for less than a year?

The different counties, according to the Weekly, Delegates:

ing may be termed a profitable business .-

doption of the New Constitution, and the thes bscription is renewed. glorious result of the first election under it. We believe we have now said enough as taxation of individual and corporate property We hope many-many of them. Integrity—have all been affirmed and ap- the postage paid.

But our labors are not ended. Let us re-Office. member that eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty. Let us show by our moderation and decision that we are contending for What! is there no bribing death-Cardi- these principles, and are worthy of the victory which we have achieved.

S. MEDARY, S. D. PRESTON, J. REINHARD. S. W. ANDREWS, THOS. SPARROW, Democ atic State Ce tral Committee. Nov. 1851.

Scene in a Black Smith Shop. [Farmer's boy ent rs. and Blacksmith gives him the ox-chain, which has been repaired.]

Farmer's Boy.—Mr. Blacksmith, did Itell you how that the hired man John and I were slipped one broken link through the other, and put his finger in for a "toggle" while I started ahead and cut his finger off, and that remarkably pleasant. Try it. John felt badder at making a fool of himself than he did about the loss of his finger? Blacksmith.-No-you didn's tell of that.

Farmer's Boy.—No, nor I sin't a going to, for I promised John I wouldn't. A student of medicine out in Michithis city—we think it has character and age enough to speak for itself. But, be that as ries of all the officers of the State are to be it may, we shall not discontinue our paper on that account! We, therefore, send out our prospectus, inviting all who desire to take it, to do so of course.

Prospectus of the OHIO STATESMAN.

DAILY-SEMI-WEEKLY AND WHEELY.

COLUMBUS, OHIO S. MEDARY Nov. 1851.

But, be that as agreed upon and fixed. New laws upon the subject of taxation must be adopted. The State must be divided into representative districts for Congressional purposes. The a year, from the first of January, 1852, in-invariably in advance, to all subscribers out fined. A very important commission, for of the city, and sent by mail. To subscri- the purpose of procuring a new and improved bers in the city, and delivered by carriers, the price will be as heretofore. Six Dollars, and the duties and powers of it are to be the price will be, as heretofore, Six Dollars.

After the 1st of January next, we shall dis- prescribed. A new judiciary system is to continue our Tri-Weekly Statesman, and pub. be adopted, and put into practical operation. lish in its stead a Semi-Weekly, the size of No more acts of incorporation are to be passour present Weekly Ohio Statesman. The ed, but a general law, which shall be broad Semi-Weekly will contain all the matter of enough to cover all applications of the kind, the Daily Statesman, and be issued on Mon- is to be digested and passed. These, togethdays and Thursdays, at $3,00 per annum, er with several other important matters, for single subscribers, and for Clubs as below. must be acted upon before the Legislature or disarrangement of the mails, will find the an effort will be made to carry out the doc-Semi-Weekly to be the very paper they are trines that have been promulgated at the or ought to be looking for, in all respects. conventions of the Locofoco party, and that It is the paper that every politician, especial-laws will be passed for the express purpose ly those who wish to be posted up, should of putting an end to the Banking institutions take upless that the Baily of the State. As that party has a large mae State Central Committee, for a Democratimproved family newspaper, and we have no have reason to expect that the distinctive feamay, by such instrumentalities, develop the ic State Convention, to be held in the City doubt, will be better liked than heretofore. tures of State policy which they have urged, of Columbus on the 8th day of January next. It will contain as few advertisements as pos- will be carried into practical operation. The business to be transacted by the Con-sible, and no long patent medicine adver-TERMS BY THE YEAR.

> City, by carriers, Twenty " "

Time in abundance scened moving slowly Days without number the proposed for pleasure
But they are blasted, now behold the end of Procrastination.

Drocrastination.

Days without number the proposed for proceedings of the emocracy of Ohio:

Drocrastination.

Drocra

meet in convention in the city of Columbus, that ever convened in Ohio is about to sit- graphed in the evening of each day to us, on the 5th day of January next, to nominate who of you will not feel interest enough in from Washington, and will invariably be two Senatorial Delegates to the Democratic months, commencing with the session of with the doings in Congress and our State National Convention, and for the Delegates the Ohio Legislature (the 1st Monday of Legislature, and will be informed of all im-Semi-Weeekly, for the same time, do.

victory. The principles of the Democratic Democratic friends. Without your aid, all ces and homes of every citizen of Ohio. party—all men age by nature, free and inde-our writing, and printing, and circulating we continue our cash in advance system, pendent—all political power is inherent Prospectuses will amount to nothing. You n the people-government is instituted are scattered all over this great Democratic us, and far the best for the public. We call for their benefit and protection—they have State—we are here confined to a little nara right to alter, amend or abolish it—the row room, working, and fresting, and fussing low terms below, and hope they will make a prohibition of special privileges and special for the triumph of the great principles that vigorous effort to give the Journal a greatly egislation—the right of instruction—the are free to all nations, as those principles increased circulation. The efficiency of the right of petition—the freedom of speech—the freed us—but without your aid to circulate paper must, of course, depend upon the effifreedom of the press-the election of all of them among the people, our labors must be ciency of our friends throughout the State in ficers by the people—the responsibility of confined to a small area, and of but little ef. getting us a large list of subscribers. We governors to the governed-the inviolability fective force. How many democrats in Oof the persons and property of men-the equal his will then give us a lift in this matter? cial agent to get up a club in his neighbor-proved by a decided vote of the people of our Re Write the names plain, a great many published within the coming year? of them, and be particular about the Post

A Seasonable Hint.

As the cold season is at hand, and economy in fuel is a subject of some importance, it my in fuel is a subject of some importance, it each, may be well to mention a very simple way Weekly clubs of ten and upwards, of shutting out the cold from our dwellings, and thereby adding much to the comfort of home. Those who are annoved by the clatter of windows when the mercury is consid. Daily by mail, each, - 200 erably below zero, and by a current of air Tri-weekly. " 100 sufficiently strong to turn a good sized wind. Weekly, " 5) sufficiently strong to turn a good sized windmill, can easily obtain relief by attending to the following directions. Procure a shillings's worth of lats from the tailor, and a ces us to put the price of the session paper paper of small tacks from the hardware store. higher than it is for the balance of the year. On the first pleasant day take out your windows, and tack a strip of list, of suitable thickness, on the outer edges; so that it will be ploughing and we broke the chain, and John entirely out of sight-return the sash to its place, and your job is done. By this simple new way to raise money, adopted by a lack process almost any room may be rendered He pretended to have lost one leg, and was went to cut a stick for him, and the oxen delightfully warm, and the wife and children

"Why, dey fus cut dar noses off, and dey gan having courted a girl a year and got the can't smell nuffiin."

"Oh, yab, yab, yab, yab or for "the visits" he paid her. "Oh, yab, yah, yah—what an unpenum trabum riggraf you is?"

Prospectus FOR THE

OHIO STATE JOURNAL. The time is now drawing near, when the first Legislature under the New Constitution of Ohio will commence its session. It is In presenting our prospectus at this time hardly necessary to remind our friends that to the public, we shall endeavor to be as this Legislature will be one of the most inbrief and direct to the point as possible. We shall not, as another paper has done, brag of ours being the best one in the world, or in practical operation. Numerous and very improvements of the control of the most interesting and important that will ever assemble. The new Constitution is to be put into practical operation. Numerous and very improvements of the control of the most interesting and important that will ever assemble. Our Daily paper will be issued at $5,00 powers, dates and restrictions of the differ-

Such as do not desire the Daily Statesman, either on account of cost, or the arrangement On the subject of the Currency, we think The Weekly Ohio Statesman will be an jority in both brances of the Legislature, we

> It must be evident to every voter of Ohio, that the coming session cannot fail to be of importance to the well-being of the people of $5,00 the State, and that it becomes every freeman 6,00 to keep himself especially posted up on the 3,00 proceedings of the Legislature. The laws Ten Club, do. at one P. O., 25,00 that are proposed, and these that are adop-40,00 ted should be known to all. The reasons, 1,50 as given by the men who shall enact them,

Ten Club sub's, at one P. O., 12,00 should be read and known to all. Twenty-five " " 25,00 The Dank Ohio State Journal will retain the Club subscribers should all go to one the high reputation it has maintained for Post Office, and be sent on one sheet of pa- years past, for giving the most full and aceusending additional names at the same prices, per in the morning, probably, and the morning's paper will contain the full reports of The Legislature, will, in all probability, all the previous day's proceedings up to the from the large amount of work before it, be time of adjournment. The mails are so ar-found in the Journal of the next morning. for the Board of Public Works; and to elect The Session Ohio Statesman-Daily, four So that our readers will be regularly served $2,00 portant events on the day following that on 1,00 which they transpire.

50 Besides these items, the Journal will main ratio of representation heretofore established. The Daily and Semi-Weekly will contain tain its established reputation as a general will be entitled to the following number of all the Legislative news-the Weekly such News paper. Our telegraph arrangements elegates:

[Harrison county is entitled to three Delumns. Ro No paper, yearly or session, ble news of interest. In the various departates.] will be sent without the money in advance. ments, literary, political, agricultural, &c., We cannot conclude this address without And at the expiration of each subscription, to say nothing of typographical, it will concongratulating you upon the triumphant apaid for, the paper will cease going unless tinue to excel. In short, no pains or expense will be available to the concordance of pense will be spared to make the Journal a most interesting, acceptable and indispensa-Republican principles have achieved a great to terms, &c., one word, therefore, to our ble visitor in the counting rooms, shops, offi-

We continue our cash in advance system, hope every Whig will consider himself a spehood. Will our friends think of these things, -judicial reform-national honor and State get All letters to the Editor should have and act, so as to secure a wide circulation of the important matters that are sure to be

Daily to subscribers by mail, per year, Tri-weekly, -4 3 OU Weekly. -

Weekly Clubs of four and upwards one address, each, -FOR SESSION OF FOUR MONTHS.

SCOTT & BASCOM, Publishers. Columbus, Nov., 1851. THE LAST DODGE.-A story is told of a doing quite a business, when a contleman concluded to examine the remaining portion concluded to examine the remaining portion of the lost limb, when the boy jumped up the posters from smellin' in de hottest ob by sticking the missing leg into a hole made in the sidewalk for a Croton water fauctured and sitting in such a position that the tries.

ould not be seen. AT In giving Geography leasons a school master down east asked a boy—"What state do you live in?" To which the boy drawles out in reply-"A state of sin and mi